ACADEMIC BACKGROUND:

1983 Ph.D., Arizona State University
   Major: Accounting
   Dissertation: "A Comparison of Perceptual and Technical Skills Among Systems Analysts, Internal Auditors, and EDP Auditors"

1977 M.B.A., Marquette University
   Concentration: Finance

1975 B.S.B.A., Marquette University
   Majors: Accounting
       Finance

PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATIONS PASSED:

Certified Public Accountant
Certified Management Accountant

MEMBERSHIPS:

American Accounting Association
Association for Information Systems
Institute of Management Accountants
Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

1983 - Present - Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan
Spring 1999 – Visiting Professor, University of Tasmania, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia

Courses Taught:
 ACC 321 – Accounting Information Systems
 ACC 441 – Computerized Information Systems
 ACC 490 – Design, Implementation and Use of Small Accounting Information Systems
 ACC 495 – Computer Auditing
 ACC 821 – Management of Information Technology
 ACC 822 (852) – Analysis and Design of Enterprise Information Systems
 ACC 824 (890) – Accounting and Business Data Communications
 ACC 826 – Enterprise Resource Planning Systems
 ACC 911 – Accounting Information Systems Research Seminar
 ACC 913 – Accounting Research Seminar II

I have developed or co-developed the following courses: ACC 490, ACC 495, ACC 821, ACC 822, ACC 824, ACC 826, ACC 911, ACC 913.

I have also been involved with numerous independent studies. These have ranged from Computer Auditing (prior to the offering of the ACC 495 course), to the development and evaluation of accounting information systems for small enterprises (including the use and evaluation of microcomputer accounting software packages, the development of conceptual data models, and the preparation of RFP's), the use of smart card technology, and expert systems. These independent studies have been at the undergraduate, masters, and doctoral levels.

| 1979 - 1982 | Graduate Teaching Assistant, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona |
| 1977 - 1979 | Instructor, Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin |
