

Jonathan D. Anibal, CPA, CPCU

Jon is an adjunct instructor of accounting & taxation at Michigan State University.

Prior to joining the staff at MSU, Jon worked in the audit and tax departments at the international CPA firm KPMG where he served clients in the manufacturing, governmental, and financial services industries. In addition, Jon taught many of the Firm's professional development classes at various offices throughout the United States and was a member of the KPMG Professional Practice Review Committee that performed peer reviews of various KPMG offices.

Jon also previously worked as a Client Executive for the international insurance brokerage company Marsh USA where his responsibilities included managing the pricing of services discipline (an internal function with the objective of maximizing client service value and Marsh revenue) for the Detroit, Grand Rapids, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Kansas City offices.

Jon is the past Chair of the Michigan Association of CPAs Board of Directors, past Member of the Advisory Council for the American Institute of CPAs, and current member of the MICPA President's Advisory Council, current Board Member of the MICPA Accountancy Foundation and current Chair of the MICPA Members Insurance Task Force.

Jon is a licensed CPA in the state of Michigan and also a Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter.