ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP PROFILE

Collaborative, engaged, and forward-thinking leader with a passion for student success and lifelong learning. Strong track record of thought leadership, publishing in top quality and high impact journals as well as securing external grants, including a recent $10m USDA-NIFA grant with cross-college/cross-university colleagues. Engaged in creative and innovative development of curricular/co-curricular programs and initiatives, including extensive experience in executive education programs. Demonstrated success in strategic planning and building partnerships with external constituents and stakeholders, including engagement and fundraising opportunities. Consensus builder who seeks input and insights from others, evaluates applicable information, and breaks down silos to solve problems and integrate and advance ideas through to implementation and success. Committed to mentoring others and building a positive community culture where everyone has a sense of belonging.

SUMMARY OF RECENT LEADERSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Interim Dean, Broad College of Business (August 2022-July 2024)

Trusted to lead the college during a leadership transition and develop stability at a time of uncertainty with additional transitions and a campus tragedy. Through transparency, greater communication, and enhanced engagement opportunities, strengthened and enhanced community culture and worked to reengage faculty, staff and students in a post covid environment. Reassessed financial constraints affecting academic units and programs providing greater financial support for initiatives and resources and securing additional financial support for college initiatives. Built relationships with students, alumni, donors, and other external stakeholders providing confidence in the ability for the college to continue on its foundation of excellence and ensure an exceptional educational experience for our student population.

- Chief Academic Officer of the Broad College of Business, overseeing a budget of over $52.7m, over 330 full-time faculty and staff, 3,800 undergraduate (majors) and 1,000 graduate students
- Strengthened relationships with alumni/donors during a turbulent and challenging environment
- Enhanced marketing/communication efforts to build positive brand awareness for the college
- Partnered with college development and stakeholders to secure philanthropic support to fund innovative new student success program, launched in spring 2024
- Standardized processes and ensured compliance with key college/university policies
- Engaged in building cross-campus relationships and partnerships, developing opportunities for collaboration and improving operations
- University Service: Administrative Spend Efficiency Analysis Advisory Committee, Axia Institute Executive Advisory Board, Burgess Institute for Entrepreneurship and Innovation Internal Advisory Board, Deans Council, Engineering Digital Innovation Center Executive Committee, Enrollment Management Strategy Committee, Ethics Institute Executive Leadership Committee, Ethics Institute Dean Committee, President Council, Provost Council
